More New Suits.

We are adding new models continually—Straight-line and ripple effects—designs that appeal especially to the misses—and designs that will appeal directly to the maturer tastes.

All the approved materials are employed—Sil-vertone, Jersey, Poirer Twills, Tricotine, Serge and Silk Velour—in all the most wanted colorings.
A very complete assortment to meet the demands of this week.

We are featuring the new models in Riding Habits. Exclusive styles.

Trimmed Hats.

Our arrangements with our designers insure new arrivals every day this week—that you may have the choice of the very latest in Hats shown in New York—for sport, street and dress wear.
The color you want you will be sure to find here.

Don't let the high-grade character of our stock suggest the idea that our prices are high.
They are NOT.

Separate Skirts.

Some most attractive novelties for sport, street and dress wear—exclusive models, with all the charm of originality.

Dobbs Ferry, to remain until after Easter.

fund. Their guests, who dined with them at the White House before the performance, were Mrs. W. H. Bolling, Miss Bolling, Miss Bones, Dr. Teusler and Mr.
John Randolph Bolling. The theater was elaborately hung with the flags of the United States and the allies and the Red Cross insignia, the Stars and Stripes decorating the President's box.

Mrs. Wilson wore a very becoming gown of white satin and tulle trimmed with sequins and a pink rose at her waist. Others who had boxes were Countess de Cel-lere, wife of the Italian ambassador; Mme.

will entertain at dinner on April 8 in honor of the British ambassador and Lady Reading.

Mrs. Henry F. Dimock entertained at dinner last evening in honor of the British ambassador and Lady Reading.
Among the guests invited to meet them were the minister of Switzerland and Mme.
Sulzer, the minister of the Netherlands and Mme. Philips, the United States minister to Denmark and Mrs. Maurice Francis Egan, Senator and Mrs. James W.
Wadsworth, Representative and Mrs.
Medill McCormick, Lady Lister-Kaye and Mrs. Arthur Dodge and Mr. Butler Jewett of New York, who are the house guests of Mrs. Dimock.

Lady Reading, wife of the British ambassador, will be present at the meeting to be held this afternoon under the auspices of the federal food administrator, when Mrs. Ernest Burnett Smith will make an address.
Mr. and Mrs. Carl Vrooman, with whom Mrs. Smith is stopping, will be among those entertaining box parties.
Their guests will include Mrs. Louis D.
Brandels, Mrs. Hennen Jennings, Mrs.
Pope Yeatman and Mrs. Matthew T.
Scott.

Mr. John Barrett, with Mr. Edward N. Hurley of the shipping board, will be a guest tonight at New York at the annual dinner of the National Marine League.

Mr. Barrett addressed the Rochester Business Institute and College Women's Club at Rochester yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. J. Biddle Porter has rented her house, 1732 I street, and with her daughter, Miss Elizabeth Rush Porter, will spend some time at the Aldine Hotel, Philadelphia.
Mr. and Mrs. Sanford of New York have taken Mrs. Porter's house for two months.

Lord and Lady Aberdeen, who will soon leave for the first of two farewell teas yesterday afternoon in the small ballroom of the Ritz-Carlton at New York.
The second will be held today. Some of those who dropped in to bid the Aberdeens "au revoir" were Sir Frederick Black, Col. and Mrs. Edward M. House, Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Wise Wood,
Mr. and Mrs. Wickliffe Rose, Miss Rose, Mrs. Wesley Watson, Mrs. Reginald Furman, Mrs. Henry L. Burnett and Miss Alice Carpenter.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick E. Chapin have with them for the Easter holidays their daughter, Miss Marcia Chapin, who is a student at Dobbs Ferry, N. Y.

Mrs. Gustavus T. Kirby, who has been visiting at her home at New York for several weeks, will return to Washington on Monday.

Mr. Lioubomir Michaelovitch, minister from Serbia, who has spent the past four months at Palm Beach, returned yesterday to the legation here, at 1531 New Hampshire avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Pope Yeatman of Philadelphia have taken the residence of the late Gen. Charles T. Alexander, at 1414 Connecticut avenue.
Mr. Yeatman is connected with the Council of National Defense and is on the Pacific coast, where Mrs. Meier's youngest sister, Mrs. Monroe Eyre Pinkard, formerly Miss Dorothy Willuffs, has been living since her marriage.

Miss Eleanor Kelysa will return from Smith College this week to spend the Easter vacation with her mother, at 1736 Eye street.

Miss Olive Graef and her guest, Miss Lila Hotz of Chicago, who have been spending the past ten days with Miss Graef's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Campbell Graef, returned yesterday to New York, where they are in school.

A dinner will be given by the Church Club of New York on April 10 at the Waldorf-Astoria in honor of the Lord Archbishop of York. It will follow a reception at which the Rev. Dr. New York will make the address of welcome. He will be followed by Bishop Tuttle of Missouri, and Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler of Columbia University.
The archbishop's address will conclude the evening's program. Some of those at the dinner committee, of which R. Fulton Cutting is chairman, are Messrs. Charles W. Bowring, Haley Blake, former Ambassador James W.
Gerard, Messrs. J. Pierpont Morgan,

Mrs. Marshall Field went to New York Sunday to spend several weeks.

Through the courtesy of the Maryland Society of Colonial Dames of America, of which Mrs. William Reed is president, Maj. Gen. Joseph E. Kuhn and members of his staff from Camp Meade will occupy Mount Clare, the Carroll mansion in Carroll Park, as their headquarters April 5, when they go up to take part in the parade to be held at Baltimore on the following day. Gen.
Kuhn will be given the bedroom at Mount Clare which was occupied by George Washington on his visits.
Arrangements are now being made for the historical society to be held at Mount Clare by the Colonial Dames early in May. Mrs. T. Harrison Garrett is chairman of the committee and every effort will be made to make the exhibition a success. Already a number of interesting pieces of silver, furniture, etc., have been promised.
Garrett by residents of Baltimore and the State.
Mount Clare was built in 1754 by Charles Carroll, barrister, and stands in the center of Carroll Park, with its terraced gardens in the rear, and the front with its great door and pillars looks out over spacious lawns with fine old trees. It is one of the finest specimens of colonial architecture of this period. Many prominent men, including Washington and Lafayette, were guests there.

Mrs. James McDonald returned yesterday from New York, where she spent ten days with Mr. and Mrs. Barrall Hoffman.

The regular monthly meeting of the Army Emergency Committee will be held Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the home of Mrs. Mackay-Smith, 1325 16th street.

Col. Theodore Lyster, who recently returned from France, will make a short address on conditions abroad.

Mrs. Samuel E. Winslow, wife of Representative Winslow, has gone to their home in Massachusetts to spend this week.

Mrs. Peter Murray and Miss Frances Murray have moved to the Dresden, where they will remain during the absence of Gen. Murray abroad.

On account of this week the weekly tea at the National American Women's Suffrage Association, 1424 Rhode Island avenue, will not be held tomorrow.

The counselor of the State Department and Mrs. Frank L. Polk, who have spent the week end with the former's father, Dr. William M. Polk, at New York, returned last evening to Washington.
